Juvenile Problems Up 62 Percent

Juvenile problems as measured by petitions filed in juvenile court have increased some 62 per cent during the war years 1941-45.

This fact was brought to the attention of the program committee planning the Fourteenth Annual Conference of Coordinating Councils by John M. Zuck, probation officer of Los Angeles county in a statement endorsing the conference.

"We in the County Probation department are emphasizing more and more the preventive aspects of our work. Our long relationship with coordinating councils has borne dividends in preventing an even greater increase in the number of problems the department has had to handle during these wartime years," continued Mr. Zuck. "They will be of immeasurable assistance in helping youth to meet the problems of reconversion."

The conference will convene for an all-day session in Patriotic Hall on Monday, Oct. 29, at 9:00 a.m. and will terminate at 5:00 p.m. with an address by the Honorable William B. McKesson, judge of the juvenile court, who will summarize the discussions of the day and challenge the participants to renewed efforts on behalf of youth.

"He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved," promised Jesus in the Golden Text from Matthew in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The subject is "Probation after Death." Scriptural accounts from John and Luke relate that after his resurrection, "when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you." "But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? . . . for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet. . . . Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures. "The resuspending of Jesus was not the return of a spirit," says Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." "He presented the same body that he had before his crucifixion, and so glorified the supremacy of Mind over matter." "Jesus was the way"; that is, he marked the way for all men."
